Professional Experience

Janet joined Tousley Brain Stephens in 2019 as our litigation paralegal. She has 24 years of legal experience performing litigation paralegal tasks on a wide variety of cases.

Janet is responsible for case management for litigation cases in the firm, including class action, securities, and real estate litigation. She works on all aspects of litigation and case management, including discovery, document management, research and trial preparation. Janet locates and interviews witnesses, researches products and businesses, and is the primary contact for class members in class actions. She works closely with clients and counsel throughout the country to provide timely and effective litigation support.
